

Rubin Wealth Advisors Code of Ethics

As a Chartered Life Underwriter and Chartered Financial Consultant, as earned at the American College, I adhere to the American College's Code of Ethics.

"In all my professional relationships, I pledge myself to the following rule of ethical conduct: I shall, in light of all conditions surrounding those I serve, which I shall make every conscientious effort to ascertain and understand, render that service which, in the same circumstances, I would apply to myself."

The Canons

- Conduct myself at all times with honor and dignity.
- Avoid practices that would bring dishonor upon my profession or The American College.
- Publicize my achievements in ways that enhance the integrity of my profession.
- Continue my studies throughout my working life so as to maintain a high level of professional competence.
- Do my utmost to attain a distinguished record of professional service.
- Support the established institutions and organizations concerned with the integrity of my profession.
- Participate in building my profession by encouraging and providing appropriate assistance to qualified persons pursuing professional studies.
- Comply with all laws and regulations, particularly as they relate to professional and business activities.

I strive to ensure that every member of RWA Advisors conducts themselves the same as me.